

Kevin Fan Yu – biography:

picture © Daniel Reiche

Born in 1990, Europe based Taiwanese concert pianist Kevin Fan Yu has performed in many European countries and Taiwan in prestigious concert halls such as London South Bank Centre, Leipzig Gewandhaus or Taiwan Kaohsiung Cultural Centre Concert Hall and he has appeared in festivals such as Leamington Music Festival, Stratford Festival and Leipzig Bachfest.

Kevin Fan Yu has won numerous prizes, among them the Absolute 1st Prize in the 24th "Citta di Barletta" International Young Musicians Competition, 1st Prize in Val Tidone International Piano Competition (2016) and 2nd Prize in the Valletta International Piano Competition (2017).

After graduating with honor and distinction from the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire in the UK and the Liszt Ferenc Zeneművészeti Egyetem in Budapest, Hungary, he completed his 1st Meisterklassenexamen degree in solo piano at the Hochschule für Musik and Theater "Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy" Leipzig with Prof. Markus Tomas and is now pursuing his 2nd Meisterklassenexamen in Piano Chamber Music under the guidance of Prof. Caspar Frantz.