

Elisabeth Wrede:

picture © Daniel Reiche

Elisabeth Wrede, born in 1998 in Cottbus, Germany, is a mezzo-soprano. Her musical education started at the Cottbus conservatory, where she received vocal and instrumental music lessons and sang in the children's and chamber choir. Three times she was awarded a prize at the German national competition „Jugend musiziert“, one year simultaneously for the categories vocals and bassoon. Elisabeth Wrede participated repeatedly in the „Konzert junger Künstler“ of the Staatstheater Cottbus and sang extracts from operas and repertoire with orchestra.

She started studying at the Hochschule für Musik und Theater „Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy“ Leipzig while still being in secondary school and is now a regular student under Prof. Brigitte Wohlfarth. She repeatedly participates actively in concerts and class evenings of the Hochschule für Musik und Theater „Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy“ Leipzig and performed in the school's production of Haydn's „Four Seasons“ as a choir singer.